Nothing newer nor further has been de reloped in the shooting outrage chronicled in these pages at the time of its occurrence, but it is rumored that the "city fathers" have taken the matter in hand, and something surprising may be "did."

The annual election of Directors of the Cincianati & Fayetteville Railroad Com-pany was held at the Company's office in this town Monday. The old officers were re-elected with the exception of Messrs. Connolly and Campbell, Messra. Milton Gallagher and John Ferris were chosen in their place. It is hoped that something will be done at once toward the completion of the road. We have had sufficient wind rk: now, let us have something prac

Shooting has of late become contagious but we trust it will not reach the propor-tions of an epidemic. Last week we chron-icled the shooting through a window from the outside, from the muzzle of a shot-gun; this week we have the more sensational shooting of a young man from a second-story window to the alley below, to avoid being caught by the master of the house at the point of a six-shooter, in a bed-room with the servant-girl at the very unseasonable hour of 2 o'clock in the morning. The denoument of the affair created quite a busz on our streets yesterday, and the end is not yet. Later it is rumored that our my Lothario donned his best, and with his budding, blushing Josia Market delivery budding, blushing Josie, started for George-town, the County seat, to procure the license, and make the only reparation now in his power for the evil he had done. The community gave vent to a "Cy" of relief when they saw what they hoped it would be, the happy termination of a rather questionable beginning.
